LEGS CUT OFF.

Frightful Accident on the C. and O. at Russell Last Night.

George Fish, freight brakeman on the C. and O. Railroad, met with a serious accident at Russell last night.

It is supposed that Fish fell from the cars, landing in such a position that both legs were cut off.

Mr. Fish is a brother of Conductor Fish, and is well known in this city.

SKINNING THE SINNERS.

Colonel Silas A. Clift Pays His Respects to Sundry Politicians.

If you've never heard Colonel Silas A. Clift scalp the politicians, you've lost a good deal of life's charms.

The Maysick orator was billed for an outbreak at the Courthouse yesterday afternoon, and the few that were present enjoyed a treat.

Colonel Clift was in feeble health, but said he had made the appointment and would fill it as best he could.

He took the ground that silver was the established money of the Bible, that the laws of man had no right to change the medium of circulation, and demanded to know any Government that had established gold as its only money.

The speaker was quite ironical, and his "roast" of the local Democratic Goldbugs was amusing, especially his references to "Lord" Perrie and "Apostle" Longnecker.

He then paid his respects, seriatim, to Mason's Representatives at Frankfort, beginning with Dr. Frazee and winding up with Jim "Cale." The latter, he said, had changed his name; before he went to Frankfort it was Ca-hill; but honors had so turned his head that it was now "Cale."

Mr. Clift had voted for Mr. Cahill in his first race, and he had made a mistake after going to Frankfort; he had gotten into the Feeble-minded Institute, and remained there two weeks after the Legislature had adjourned without knowing it, and he intended to vote for him again, because he wanted him to go back to Frankfort and see the Legislature this time.

The speaker then referred to Hon. Walter Matthews and his famous "Black-knot" Law, which was identical with a statute that existed in England three hundred years ago.

He said he had voted for one Republican in the last county election, and he did so for the sole reason that the Republican had been consistent throughout his whole life—"He was born as mean as hell, and he was as mean as hell yet!"

Mr. Clift was too feeble to continue, though there were loud calls for him to go on.

Y. M. C. A. MATTERS.

What the Local Association Is Doing For the City's Young Men.

The Men's Rally will be held tomorrow afternoon and hereafter at 3 o'clock, instead of four. "Loyalty to the Home" is to be treated by Rev. J. S. Sims, and every young man ought to hear this important theme presented. A hearty welcome to all men young and old.

At the meeting of the Ladies' Soliciting Committee held in the Association parlor Friday afternoon, reports of progress were made by the canvassers of four city Wards with the following excellent result: First Ward, $6 95; Third Ward, $10 05; Fifth and Sixth Wards, $17 20; total, $34 20.

When it is considered that these donations consist largely of dimes and quarters with some half-dollars and dollars, and further that the canvass is not yet completed in any Ward, or even partially reported from the Second and Fourth Wards, the result seems very encouraging and gives evidence of the general interest which the ladies of the city have in this important work for our young men. The canvass will be continued next week at the convenience of the Committee members, and it is earnestly hoped that not less than $75 in all will be secured and if possible $100. This fund will be used by the ladies to advance the local Association work in certain lines. The Treasurer of the Committee, Miss Amy Phister, will be pleased to receive contributions from any who have been misled by mistake in the canvass.

"Les Miserables" Victor Hugo's masterpiece of fiction and sociology, has been barred out of the Girls' High School of Philadelphia on the ground that it is impure.
